Are you responsible for people?

Being a manager is not always easy. Leading a team can mean you are expected to be all things to all people - knowing and understanding when colleagues may need help and support.

We cannot predict the unexpected life changing situations which challenge us to the extreme - accident, illness, sudden death.

We can help

The Rowland Hill Fund offers financial support in times of need. You can refer your people to us with the confidence that we'll do our best to help, treating each case without prejudice or judgement.

- Reduce colleague stress and anxiety
- Manage and reduce sick absence
- Support your Employee Survey Action Plan
- Support the focus on Feeling First Class and our Wellbeing Programme
